

BRIGHT FUTURES ARE WRITTEN BY HAND

This activity can be used with children aged 7-8.
It teaches the use of common contractions. Joining two words together by replacing one letter with an apostrophe makes the new word.
Writing the new word by hand consolidates understanding.

Common Contractions

Remove the o in not and put an apostrophe ' in its place. The first one is done for you.

are not aren't is not _____ does not _____ were not _____ has not _____

did not _____

Write the contraction to complete each sentence.

Why _____ you wearing your school uniform?

The boys _____ allowed to play soccer in the rain.

Can you please tell the teacher that I _____ do my homework?

My lunchbox _____ in my bag.

My coat _____ have any pockets.

The train _____ come yet.
