

BRIGHT FUTURES
ARE WRITTEN BY HAND

This activity can be used with children aged 8-12 years.

It outlines the steps in planning a persuasive text.

Persuasive texts are designed to persuade or convince others to agree with your point of view. They argue only one side of the argument.

Children Should Not Wear School Uniforms

Construct a persuasive argument for or against the statement, Children Should Not Wear School Uniforms. Think about whether you agree or disagree with this statement. Then, fill in the planner below to build your argument.

Title: Children Should Not Wear School Uniforms

Your viewpoint: _____

Introduction: _____

First supporting point or argument: _____

Second supporting point or argument: _____

Third supporting point or argument: _____

Conclusion:

