

BRIGHT FUTURES ARE WRITTEN BY HAND

This activity can be used with children aged 7-8.
It is designed to help them develop story-writing skills for showing a character's personality traits to their readers.

Showing a character's personality traits in your writing

Character traits

Fill in the table below to show how a character can show their traits in your writing.

Character trait	Speech: What the character might say to show this trait	Actions: What the character might do to show this trait	Appearance: How the character might show this trait with body language excited
grumpy and cross

Draw a picture of your character demonstrating these traits.

excited

grumpy
and cross

